LODE GOLD EXTENDS CONSTRUCTION LOAN AGREEMENT UNTIL 2028

MAY 1st, 2026, Lode Gold Resources Inc (TSX.V:LOD | OTCQB:LODFF) announces that it has entered into an amendment to its construction loan agreement with Romspen Investment Corporation (the "Lender"), extending the maturity date of the loan to May 1, 2028. The construction loan was originally entered into on July 11, 2019, and most recently amended on January 7th, 2026.

For early repayment in the first 12 months, on or before May 1, 2027, half of the extension fee will be rebated. Extension fee (2%) only applies to the original principle. This extension fee is consistent with market rates.

This amendment aligns with Lode Gold's objectives, strategy and plans, and provides stability for the Company to continuously advance the Fremont Gold mine in the next two years to unlock value for shareholders.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information

Neither the TSX Venture Exchange nor its Regulation Services Provider (as that term is defined in the policies of the TSX Venture Exchange) accepts responsibility for the adequacy or accuracy of this release.

This news release includes “forward-looking statements” and “forward-looking information” within the meaning of Canadian securities legislation. All statements included in this news release, other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements including, without limitation, statements with respect to the use of proceeds, advancement and completion of resource calculation, feasibility studies, and exploration plans and targets. Forward-looking statements include predictions, projections and forecasts and are often, but not always, identified by the use of words such as “anticipate”, “believe”, “plan”, “estimate”, “expect”, “potential”, “target”, “budget” and “intend” and statements that an event or result “may”, “will”, “should”, “could” or “might” occur or be achieved and other similar expressions and includes the negatives thereof.

Forward-looking statements are based on a number of assumptions and estimates that, while considered reasonable by management based on the business and markets in which the Company operates, are inherently subject to significant operational, economic, and competitive uncertainties, risks and contingencies. These include assumptions regarding, among other things: the status of community relations and the security situation on site; general business and economic conditions; the availability of additional exploration and mineral project financing; the supply and demand for, inventories of, and the level and volatility of the prices of metals; relationships with strategic partners; the timing and receipt of governmental permits and approvals; the timing and receipt of community and landowner approvals; changes in regulations; political factors; the accuracy of the Company’s interpretation of drill results; the geology, grade and continuity of the Company’s mineral deposits; the availability of equipment, skilled labour and services needed for the exploration and development of mineral properties; and currency fluctuations.
